The purpose of Aldersgate Renewal Ministries (ARM) is by the grace of God and the love of our Lord Jesus Christ to encourage

United Methodists and their churches to be filled, gifted, empowered and led by the Holy Spirit in ministry to the world. ARM is an affiliate of the General Board of Discipleship through The Upper Room. ARM is also a member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA).

Conferences and retreats are scheduled locally and nationally throughout the year.

The Aldersgate Renewal Center (ARC) is the headquarters for Aldersgate Renewal Ministries.

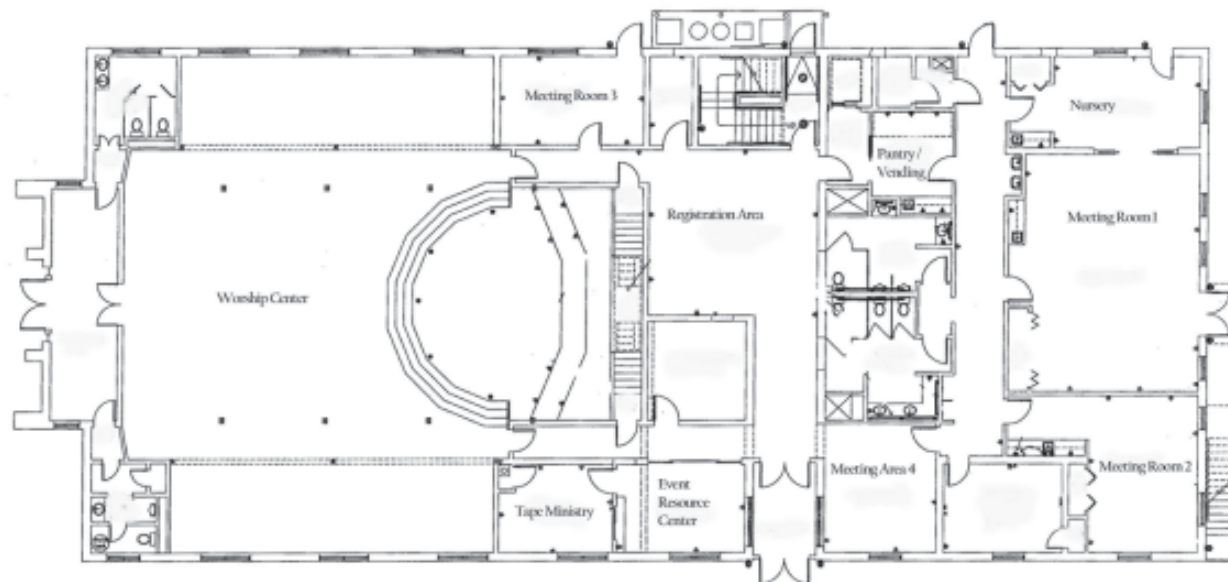

Located just north of Nashville in Goodlettsville, Tennessee, the ARC provides a comfortable and relaxed atmosphere for meetings, retreats and conferences.

The spacious worship center and four meeting areas offer creative planning options for gatherings of 10 - 200 people. Parking is ample for most events.

ARM also has three private, fully furnished homes set apart for use by clergy and their families for refreshment and personal retreat. If available, these houses may provide limited housing for event leadership. Ask for an informational brochure on the ARCCottages.

The city of Goodlettsville provides a small town feel with the amenities of many local restaurants and hotels. Contact ARM for a restaurant and hotel listing.
